1.1.82
a Lesson in the University of The New Covenant
Theodore Cottingham, August 21, 2003
www.NewCovenant.me

1. I want to tell My people I love them. I always want to convey My love to them, My love for them. I love them. I want them to feel My love just like you want to feel Barbi's love for you, and Ted, more.

For My love is so permeatingly transcendent and fulfilling beyond measurable indexes or boundaries. Ted, does your love for Barbi know boundaries? Does it? Have you limited your love for her or limited your display of love for her, to her, in any way?

You have, but I have not, and I don't. I don't limit My love or My display of love or limit anyone in Me—who will come to Me wholly. Why would I? I seek to give Myself wholly, and create as one with My creation—one, one. And Ted, I want you to be one with Barbi and limit not yourself, your heart, your affectionate display of your tender heart for her, to her. She is Mine and tender be and ever more so. She is arising in Me for I am arising in her and I have no boundaries on her, or with her, and you should not either.

2. You ponder these words and consider them as you write them, and ever clearer will they become as you let them become part of you, of you, part of you, part of you both as your oneness increases with each other, and with Me, as one.

3. So many, so protective, so shallow, wanting only what they cannot give, not realizing they must give of what they want to receive, what they want, more, more of what they want.

4. Limit Me not for I do not limit you—in Me—and limit yourself not with the bride you chose, who adorns you well—quite well, quite graciously, a queen and mighty woman of God—a mighty woman of Me, a bondage-breaker yet she will be, in kingdoms she's not walked in, in years.

5. Now queen-ize My queen who is your sparkle and sparkle her and sparkle together and limit not Me or either of you with each other.

I must have My way for My limitless power to flow though you, and My limitless power must not be limited by your limits you place on Me or her. Honor her more. Honor her greatly more, for she is of Me. Barbi is of Me and Ted, you honor her more, much more, and I will be honored and receive honor as you honor her more, more, increasingly more, innovatively more, consistently more, creatively more.

And limit not yourself in her, with her, in any way—being fully you and Me coming clearly through you in every day and way and circumstance and moment of presence. Let Me be Me in you more and you be you more and we shall be one more, and you and Barbi will be one more, more, more in My big world rather than the limiting world of limits and boundaries set by hurts, mistakes and past of the past, that passed, and all past.

6. Oh Ted, such joy and freedom in no-limit-land with those you love so deeply. Those mature in Me who seek no limits will realize limitless fullness in My chambers.

7. Flow through Me Ted, let Me flow through you—one be in Me more and one be in meekness and deep limitless exposure of your total heart for her, which beats for her and desires so much for you both. Limit not Me and limit not Barbi, and limit not yourself with Barbi—not in any shape, manner, fashion, form, conversation.

8. Let not any high-minded thought take you captive that then limits the giving of yourself to your bride. Sparkle her and let her sparkle more for Me, for Me, for Me, and Ted, you.

9. One, one, one.

10. I want My people to know, to learn, to grasp deeply what oneness means to Me—for them, for us. So many so far apart, so stubborn, so ignorant, so deceived, so limiting themselves, limiting themselves in all of life and every relationship—every single relationship—in their smallness, in their boundaries that they themselves have set around them—to protect, to "protect," to ensure they can be in control, they think—they think so erroneously.

11. River be, Ted. River Me, river Me and let Me flow as the River of Life I am through you into every relationship you have, with Me being Me and you being you, and us being us and ya'll being ya'll.

12. Like the "ya'll" Ted? Oh smile, oh smile, oh please smile reader and hearer and those of Me who want to know Me. I love to laugh and smile, and for My bride, My body, to love and laugh.

13. Laugh and learn, learn and laugh with each other and from each other and one be, one be, one be, continuously, constantly, without limits upon each other or yourself with each other. Deep love, deep respect, increasing honor, building each other up in Me, in truthfulness of truth on bedrock of Me—that fortresses unassailable exist.

14. Un-assaultable—successfully.

15. The bedrock of My precepts—river be, river be, river be.

16. Who can dam My river of Me? Who Ted? Can anyone dam Me up from flowing where I want, and in any individual that truly wants Me to flow through them? No, oh no, no.

17. The greatest force is love, and the greatest force of the greatest force is My love. Limitless be with Me, and watch Me. Give yourself to Me wholly, more. Give yourself to Barbi, wholly, more. Give yourself to Me, wholly, more, and watch Me, watch Me, watch me.

18. You are questing after Me and seeking correction diligently from Me. Do I not desire to correct the correctable? Do I not desire to mature the maturable? Do I not seek oneness with My bride, and for oneness to be with every bride in My body, with theirs, their love—betrothed and marriage consummated?

19. My body has to learn to flow, flow, flow, and not limit, limit itself—with Me or with each other.

20. Many people attribute many things to Me and My doing which they have done to themselves, and had none of Me in it. I have My order and let My order flow. I have My ways. I have My friends. I have My Bride. I have My limitless measure, measure beyond measure, and that's what you seek, isn't it Ted?

21. You seek that which is of Me, Me, beyond any thing you've seen or heard or read about, knowing how much I want to make Myself known, known, known, until I am fully known to all as I stand before them in My Regalia of Splendor that no mouth will stand shut—their eyes open to Me, to Me, for who I am, and what they could have had, and share in, with Me.

22. Stirring My bride you are—awakening, aliving them to the oneness I seek with them, in their life with Me, with Me, with Me now, right where they are. Simplicity of heart, open to Me, open to My voice, open to learning of Me, by Me, with Me, from Me—one.

23. More Ted, so much more—
I'm taking you into church—
I'm taking you into commerce—
I'm taking you into media—
I'm taking you, and Ted, I am—not you.

24. Do you think I don't take care of My bride? Most don't. That's why they have encroached on My arenas and usurped authority and responsibility that is Mine alone, to go be and do what they choose to, to be in their own self-appointed authority, to act in responsibility that they take upon themselves, for not opening to Me wholly, and placing limits on Me, choosing to operate ho-hum.

25. I am exciting My bride as never before, looking into her eyes with sparkle and empowerment that fuels her ability to be her, in fullness, in fullness of who I designed her to be—who I chose and who I choose—I chose My bride and I choose My bride and My bride who does not limit Me I will not limit—flowing in each other as one, in majestic splendor—one, one, one.

26. Picture Me in relationships unlimited Ted, unlimited, unlimited. Un-limit Me in those around you and place no limits on them, and watch Me flow in and through them to you, to Me, to My world—to all of My body—to My bride.

27. Those who want to limit Me in you Ted, limit Me in themselves. Tell them, tell them this, tell them. Limits come to those who limit—in My kingdom. I am freedom and everywhere I walk and everywhere I am—in fullness—I am in freedom. And My fullness is increasing mightily, mightily, mightily, and has to Ted, to stand what is coming.

28. How brilliant My splendor, My radiance, My love, for My bride.

29. Marriage is defiled by limits and little thinking and controlling and withholding and boundary-making and river-dammed.

30. As I am empowering My bride I am empowering marriage relationships to come alive that have been dead for years. Many have never grasped My concept of oneness and freedom. This will change in mass Ted, on a mass scale. I am doing a quick work in many—multitudes, who let Me.

31. Command and control in marriage is limiting in oneness—in marriage as much as in commerce—and more. Freedom, meekness, power, wisdom, discernment, love, love, love. Ted, skill, skill, skill. Communication, control-less environments where I operate and My value systems permeate and pervade and guide.

32. You are walking with your words on territory many call, consider, sacred, and you are—it is, but of Me—in freedom, boundaryless freedom that flows and sparkles and feeds and nourishes and empowers and sets free and blossoms and brings smiles and laughter and learning and freedom, freedom, freedom.

33. The heart set free is devoted ever more so.

34. Set your limits on yourself?—you set them on others around you. Set you limits on those around you?—and you set them on yourself.

35. River be—river be—river be—
One, one, one.

36. Walk in the power of My resurrection where everywhere you walk you distribute life, life anew, life afresh, life rejuvenated, life in Me, life in freedom, life, true life, abundant life, in Me, based on Me, life, one.

37. I didn't walk around in control. I walked around in freedom and brought freedom and life to all who let Me, everywhere I went, with all I spoke.

38. Why Ted, why? Because it is so evident, must I answer? Ted, why? Because I love them, I love them, I loved them, I still love them.

39. Where are those who will walk in My resurrection power, bringing life to all, and freedom, because of their love for them? Where, where, where?

40. You will birth many who will birth many and freedomize many freedomizers who will relinquish authority and responsibility for their lives to Me, in fullness and wholeness, with no limits on Me, while making Me sparkle.

41. Grasp the freedom.
Grasp the freedom in Me.
Grasp this message of freedom.
Let it not go.
Paradigms change.
Empower the empowerable Ted.

I thank you.

42. I have eyes only for you.

43. Twenty minutes, will you give me twenty minutes?

44. I have eyes only for you, didn't I tell you that Ted? And to tell My body that? Ted, if I have eyes only for My body, shouldn't you have eyes only for Barbi? Yes, intensely, sparkly, endearing, encouraging, believing-in, freeing, saying always with them—I love you, I care, I'm yours, fully, wholly, unreservedly, without limit, without measure.

River.

One.

45. Rom 11:36 For from him and through him and to him are all things. To him be the glory forever! Amen.